

- First line: When Billy set his aunt on fire
- Last line: Inside his grandma's bed.

MICHAEL DUGAN

Billy

When Billy set his aunt on fire
He squealed with great delight,
'Look how Auntie's burning, Dad.
It makes the room so bright.'

When Billy played at Indians
Other children ran in fright,
For bows and arrows Billy scorned,
Preferring dynamite.

When Dad took Billy to the zoo
He hoped for quiet fun.
His ideas changed when Billy shot
A lion with his gun.

When Billy found a tiger snake
He hit it on the head.
Then took it home to hide it
Inside his grandma's bed.